

LOCAL MENTION.

All communications should be addressed to the VIRGINIA CITIZEN, IRVINGTON, VA.

F. A. Gunby and Jeff D. Ashburn are in Norfolk this week.

Mrs. M. J. Parron, of Essex county, is guest of Mrs. W. J. Newbill.

Chairman Lee is attending Gloucester court this week on oyster affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Allison left Tuesday for an extended trip north.

Baltimore prices paid for eggs by L. L. Yerby & Son, Kilmarnock.

Loyola Leland, traveling salesman, spent from Saturday until Wednesday at his home here.

Mrs. Frank King left Wednesday morning for a visit to her parental home in North Carolina.

Capt. A. J. Morgan, of Norfolk, is here gunning and visiting at the home of James Ashburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Forrest, of Baltimore, visited the lady's mother, Mrs. T. J. Willing, this week.

Mrs. M. L. Cunningham, of Frederick, Md., is visiting her niece, Mrs. Geo. H. Oliver, at this place.

Mrs. F. A. Gunby was called to Palmer Tuesday by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Treake.

Mrs. M. B. Griffith and mother, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, are visiting relatives and friends in Essex county this week.

David A. Hay, of Wilmington, Del., is in the county calling on friends and taking orders for his house in that city.

Mrs. M. R. Loomis, who has been visiting here at West Point, Va., several weeks, returned to her home at Lykens, Pa., this week.

An overcoat left on the Commodore Maury, presumably last spring at the Richmond reunion, will be returned to the owner when known.

The Village Improvement Association of this place will meet in Dr. Oliver's office Saturday night at 7:30. All members and those interested in village improvement are urged to be present.

The seventeen young ladies of this county who composed the choir on the trip to Norfolk have been sent, through the CITIZEN'S editor, 17 tiny Confederate battle-flags by Hon. W. W. Old, Jr., of Norfolk. The flags can be found at the CITIZEN'S office.

W. H. Ford is out after being housed nearly two weeks from a sore foot caused by stepping on a nail. Alvah Haydon is also out after slight indisposition. Mrs. A. E. Haydon and Mrs. Jas. C. Townsend are sick, while Perry Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mason, is critically ill.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Ryland Connelley, of Baltimore, is visiting relatives at Warsaw.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Newbill, of Norfolk, were visiting relatives in Essex county this week.

Over forty dollars, net, was realized at the Hallowe'en party at Lancaster C. H., for benefit of the Confederate Choir.

Ed. J. Douglass, manager at L. D. Stoneham's mill, Lancaster, was hurt by a slab at the saw last week and is in a precarious condition.

H. Mark Winner, of Baltimore, has resigned his position as Engineer on one of the Merchants and Miners Transportation Company's boats to accept a position on the Navy ship, Abundant, running from New York to San Francisco and the Philippine Islands.

Governor Swanson has named Capt. D. M. Nelson, of Middlesex county, delegate to the First Congressional District to the National Drainage Congress in Baltimore, November 25-27. Delegates at large are Highway Commissioner Wilson and Commissioner of Agriculture Koiner.

There will be preaching at Afton M. P. church by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Elderidge, at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, November 13th. The third Quarterly Conference of Heathsville M. P. church will be held at the parsonage, Burgess Store, Saturday afternoon, November 16th.

KETCH-AWLS FROM EVERYWHERE.

Walter E. Lipscomb left Thursday for Cape Charles, where he has accepted a position with the Northampton Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sterling, of Heathsville, Va., who have been visiting Capt. and Mrs. J. E. N. Sterling this week, left yesterday via the exposition for their home. Mr. Sterling is the popular and successful cashier of the L. E. Mumford Bank at Heathsville.

The Northern Neck Mutual Fire Association is receiving a very liberal patronage in Caroline county just as it has in every other county where it has solicited insurance. Mr. W. J. Parker, of Mt. Landing, Essex county, Va., is the special agent of the company and reports over $25,000 written in Caroline within the last thirty days. This company has been doing business in Essex county for about three years and has insured over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of property in that county.—Caroline Echo.

"We have had a glorious trip to Virginia, and have been made to feel perfectly at home, both at the Exposition and here, by the Governor and Mrs. Swanson, and many others who have shown interest in our visit," said Colonel L. M. Uman, of the staff of Governor Woodruff, of Connecticut. The Governor and every member of his party feel the same way about it," he continued, "and we are all very proud of the courtesies that have been shown us by the Virginia people. We are charmed with Governor Swanson. He is a man whose manner is at once magnetic, and he is one of the happiest speakers of my acquaintance."—Times-Dispatch.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

WHITE STONE.

Jas. Gresham, mate on steamer Lancaster, stopped off Monday to vote and spend election day here.

Mrs. C. L. Payne, and Misses Gladys Powell and Kate Chilton, of Palmers, Mrs. R. R. Dunaway, of this place, Mrs. W. A. Chase and Miss Lottie Belows, of Ocean, left Tuesday night for the Exposition.

NUTTSVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Octavius Elmore and two children Lloyd and Edna, of Heathsville, Mr. and Mrs. John Dodson, of Lottburg, and Frank Elmore and wife, of Coan, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Dawson recently. Miss Clara Elmore, of Heathsville, is spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. S. W. Dawson, near here.

Miss Gertie Cristopher will spend the winter with her grandmother and attend school. WHO AM I?

FISHERMAN.

Mrs. Harrison George and Thomas George and wife have returned from Baltimore after a week's visit.

Those who visited the Exposition recently were: B. A. Crossdale, Misses Jennie and Josie Crossdale and Cleveland George and wife.

W. G. Foxwell and wife were in Baltimore last week on business.

Miss Pearl Rainis suffering severely from a rising on her jaw.

R. F. Meekins visited W. G. Foxwell recently. PHLOX.

KILMARNOCK.

Quite a number from here attended the fair at Mathews last week. The party went down on J. B. Cralle's launch, "Eva Lillian."

Mrs. Raymond Palmer spent last week with Mrs. C. P. Palmer, at Morran.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Carter, of Williamston, N. C., are here for a few days.

Misses Genevieve and Julia Eubank are at the Exposition this week.

Miss Lottie Hinton, of Reedville, is spending a few days with Miss Agnes Palmer at "Chifton."

MILLENBECK.

W. W. Davenport, sr., is in Baltimore this week on business and for medical treatment.

R. E. Norris, Jr., of Washington, has been visiting his parental home here this week.

Emmitt and Carroll Dudley, of Washington, are visiting relatives at Lively this week.

G. O. Howeth is in Baltimore this week.

Willis Sharpe Kilmer, of Binghamton, N. Y., is here on a six week's hunting expedition.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME.

ALFONSO.

The public school here opened the 28th of October with Miss Annie L. Haynie, of Wheaton, as teacher.

Miss Mary E. Cundiff is spending some time with Mrs. W. Booth at Sampsons Wharf.

Those who have attended the Jamestown Exposition recently from this vicinity are, L. R. Clarke, J. Elbert Bush and William Clarke. They have returned home and report an enjoyable trip.

Miss Jennie A. Bradshaw, of Coan, spent a week with her cousin, Miss Bessie A. Brown, a short time ago.

Miss Angelina Barnes spent Saturday and Sunday last with her sister, Mrs. Eddie Douglas, at Molusk.

T. E. Haynie, of Wheaton, was in this vicinity recently.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Marsh, of Miskimon, visited their daughter, Mrs. Frank Haynie, Sunday last.

SWEET VIOLETS.

LANCASTER COURTHOUSE.

The Hallowe'en party held in the courthouse on the evening of the 31st proved a success in every way. The large lamp which was to be given to the prettiest and most popular girl in the audience was voted to Miss Jennie Harding. Miss Alice Chilton received almost as many votes as Miss Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beane and Mrs. Mary Davenport and little Miss Esther Davenport returned Monday from a week's stay at Jamestown.

Mrs. Snead, of Fluvanna county, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Gresham, near here.

Mrs. Peyton Carter and daughter, Mrs. Randolph Carter, of Rehoboth, spent Thursday here at the home of Mrs. A. A. Moody.

H. W. Nichols, of Baltimore, is visiting at Mr. Chilton's.

Some young folks from here were very pleasantly entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gresham.

WEEMS.

The Anderson Society of the Methodist church will hold an oyster supper in the chapel here on the fourteenth of this month. This society, we learn, is in quite a prosperous condition, having only been organized last March. The regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Betty Packett on Friday night of this week.

Ernest Ashburn, who is employed on the Commodore Maury spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Andrew Lumkin has had as her guests recently, her mother and two little sisters, of Essex county.

Mr. and Mrs. Lev Bryant and little daughter, Edith, of Irvington, were visiting here on Sunday.

J. O. Dameron was in Baltimore last week.

Miss Carolyn Gunby, teacher in the school here, is boarding with Mrs. W. A. Dameron.

Miss Beatrice Ball has recently returned from a trip to Baltimore. Miss Elmore Ashburn has also recently returned from a visit to Baltimore and Jamestown Exposition.

NOTICE THESE:

The Afro-American Association of Lancaster county will hold their fair at Kilmarnock next week, November 13-15.

Geo. Cottingham, Ottoman, has resumed private entertainment.

NORTHUMBERLAND CO.

WICOMICO CHURCH.

Wicomico Baptist Sunday school gave its annual picnic Saturday before last.

W. A. Rowe & Co. have enlarged their oyster house at Rowe's wharf.

C. C. Snow has been in Baltimore for the last ten days for medical treatment.

Miss Nettie Evans spent a few days of last week in Essex.

R. F. Hunter was here on Monday. Mrs. H. H. Blackwell and son, Willie, returned home last week after a trip to Washington, Norfolk and the Exposition.

MISKIMON.

Willie Webb and sister, Miss Cora, of Lancaster, visited their cousin, W. J. Marsh, Sunday.

Mr. Hazzard, of Iberia, visited friends here last Sunday.

Mike Kleron has returned to his home at Taft.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cockrell visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curran, at Lewistown, last Sunday and Monday.

G. H. Smith, of Taft, was here Saturday last.

Miss Irene Dawson has been indisposed for several days.

Charley Dawson is having a kitchen, dining room and porch built. A. A. Ashburn is doing the work.

Some of our sportsmen are having a fine time rabbit hunting.

Joe Christopher, of Hopside, visited relatives here Monday last.

Mrs. Bessie Crowder, of Reedville, spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. Nannie Gill.

Mrs. Royston Marsh, living near Lancaster, has been very sick but is much better at this writing.

Rev. G. Y. Bradley, of White Stone, spent Saturday night at the home of Wm. T. Marsh, and spoke at Providence Sunday in the interest of the Baptist Woman's College, of Richmond.

Wayland Marsh was at Taft Friday last.

Julian Cockrell spent a few days at Weems last week.

Chicken-pox is visiting around among the juveniles here, much to their displeasure. U AND I.

COAN.

Capt. E. F. Headley, wife, children and brother were called here last Wednesday to attend the bedside of the former's brother, Capt. Luther Headley, who is ill. His sister, Mrs. Charlie Morelet, of West Virginia, arrived Friday.

John Orem was in Fairport this week. Eugene Fallin was in Baltimore last week.

T. H. Fallin and family expect to move to Coan Hall in the near future.

A. Rice Walker, of Raineswood, visited his sister Saturday.

Mrs. Maria Dawson visited Mrs. J. M. Orem the past week.

Mrs. Lloyd Walker, of Fairport, was buried at Smithland church last Wednesday. Before marriage she was Miss Homer Sisson, and lived in this community.

Mrs. Ida Orem visited her sister, Mrs. Timbs, of Fairport, Sunday.

A. R. Walker and W. I. Reamey went gunning Saturday and killed eight rabbits.

R. B. Rice visited his niece, Mrs. Lark Reamy, Monday.

T. H. Fallin is having the roads ditched in front of E. F. Headley's place. W. I. Reamey is doing the work. This piece of road had become almost impassable, and people had been passing through Mr. Barnes' place to shun the worst of it.

HARVEY'S NECK.

The annual picnic of the Sunday school at Baptist Chapel was held on Saturday afternoon, October 26. It was highly enjoyed by all present.

Miss Julia Kent and brother, Beale, of Hopside, recently visited their uncle, Willard Whaley.

Mrs. G. R. Wadley spent a few days recently at her parental home.

Miss Bessie Christopher spent a few days of last week with relatives near Hopside.

Mrs. H. H. Blackwell and son, Willie, have returned from a most delightful trip to Washington and the Exposition.

R. A. Clark attended the reunion in Norfolk week before last. He reports an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Sedonia Barrett is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Julius Whaley.

Miss Nettie Evans, principal of the Graded school near here, left last Tuesday for her home in Essex to attend the marriage of a friend.

Miss Georgia Slacum is visiting her niece, Mrs. Stewart Slacum, near Brown's Store.

Mrs. Wandell, who has been spending the past three months here with relatives, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Myers spent the past week in Baltimore. While there they purchased furniture for their new house, which is now ready for occupancy.

Mr. Currie Whaley, who is clerking for his uncle, Wm. Tignor, at Wicomico Church, spent last Sunday at his parental home. SUNSHINE.

Mr. Merchant—"Every dog has his day, and the man who finds himself loaded up with a big stock of Irish Setters, when bull terriers are all the rage, won't do much business." How is your stock? Have you tried to get rid of it by advertising?

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SULPHUR. But Sulphur Should be Used in Liquid Form Only.

"HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR is the most wonderful remedy for Eczema I have ever known," writes Dr. W. W. Leake, of Orlando, Fla., who was cured of a case of years' standing.

Dr. W. A. Heard, of Maitland, Fla., was cured of Eczema after he had suffered for thirty years, and says: "HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR is the finest remedy for all skin troubles he has ever used or prescribed."

Doctors everywhere prescribe it; but they say Sulphur should be used in liquid form only, as it is in HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR. Buy it at all drug stores, or write HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR CO., Baltimore.

It cures all Skin and Scalp Diseases, if used in connection with the wonderful HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR OINTMENT.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

SHARPS.

The Hallowe'en social held at the Manse last Thursday night proved to be a perfect success. Supper and refreshments were served. A large crowd was present and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves very much. All kinds of indoor games were played.

Miss Ethel Trudlen, of Portsmouth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. L. Walton, at this place.

Mrs. Rock and daughter, Miss Josephine, of Farnham, were the pleasant guests of Mrs. A. D. Davis Sunday.

Ned Mazing, of Farnham, was in our midst Sunday.

Miss Alice Coates, who is teaching school for her aunt, Mrs. Beacham, of Moratoc, visited her parental home Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Manah Balderson, Earl Barker, Atwell Coates, Graham Harris and Ralph Balderson attended the Baptizing at Farnham Creek Sunday.

Mrs. A. M. Mealey returned home last Tuesday from the Sarah Leigh Hospital, Norfolk. She is improving very rapidly and we hope she will soon be perfectly well.

Messrs. W. B. and Harvey Cook, of Emmerton, returned home last Thursday from the Exposition. They reported a delightful trip.

SKIDDOO.

Wheat is looking fine since the recent rain and farmers were lucky in seeding when they did.

Mrs. Frank Settle and her little three-year-old child have been quite sick but are improving at this writing.

S. A. Harrison attended the recent Confederal reunion in Norfolk.

O. D. Hale was in Norfolk recently on business.

Mrs. Julia Lowery cut her hand with a piece of window pane recently, causing quite a bad place. Dr. Harrison dressed it for her and she is getting along nicely with it.

Mrs. James R. Webb, of Kilmarnock, recently visited friends in this section.

L. W. Pearson, of Hampton, recently visited friends around here.

Mrs. Pugh and daughter are in Baltimore visiting friends.

B. L. Ormohundro, of Farmers Fork, was in this section last week on business.

Our public roads need a little mending. Please, Mr. Overseer, have it done before trouble occurs.

Lewis-Lankford-Tull-Co. are loading a barge with lumber at the mouth of Moratoc creek. She will carry four hundred thousand feet.

A good revival meeting closed at Farnham Baptist church last week. The members of Farnham have organized a Young People's society and have enrolled fifty members to their club.

REPORTER.

SIMONSON.

Those from this section who visited the Jamestown Exposition recently were: Mrs. Clarence Medley, daughter and son, Miss Louise and Clarence, Jr.; Rev. W. E. Wright, C. A. Mothershead, Cary Hynson, W. B. Hale, Hon. J. M. Lyell, S. A. Harrison, Fitzhugh Hale, I. H. Sanford and O. A. Beauchamp, wife and son. They returned on Monday of last week and report having had a most pleasant trip.

J. Lloyd Hale returned last week from the seaside, where he had been for several weeks.

Harry Lyell, of Farnham, is clerking for W. H. Sandy this winter.

Mrs. T. K. Hale, who has been visiting her parental home in Pleasantville, N. J., for several months, has returned to this place, accompanied by little Mr. Hale, Jr.

The patrons of the Sion House school consider themselves fortunate in having Miss Helen Oldham teach for them this session.

Mrs. W. B. Hale has been visiting in Baltimore for several weeks.

Mrs. J. M. Jeffries, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, at Sion House, for several weeks, returned to her home in Norfolk last week.

Mrs. J. L. Hale, and Miss Berdell and Guy Hale are sight-seeing at the Exposition this week. They will also visit Newport News, Virginia Beach and other places of interest before they return.

AFRO-AMERICAN NOTES.

The funerals of Humphreys Taylor, sr., an aged and respected man of upper Lancaster, who died October 25, after a long illness, and Mrs. Levalia Taylor, who died July 18, were preached at Beulah last Sunday by Rev. D. Fields.

Misses Grace Tomlin and Janie Taylor and Mrs. Elsie Redman, who came down from Baltimore to attend the last sad services of their relatives, will return to that city this week.

Sunday before last was rally day at Beulah Baptist Church, at which time $91.17 was raised. The Ladies' Aid Society of Alfonso presented $23.50 to the rally, which, upon request, was added to the pew fund. The Missionary ladies are doing a great work towards the completion of the church. Miss Emma Ellett has been elected director of the vocal music class of that church.

Mrs. Ella Taylor, of Baltimore, is spending a short time with her mother, Mrs. Eugenia Wood, at Newtown.

Miss Lucy Croxton, who has been spending some time with her sister at Ottoman and the Exposition, returned to the Quaker City last week.

Mrs. Alberta Steward (nee Fautle-roy), of Philadelphia, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams and other friends in upper Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weaver visited the latter's relatives at White Stone recently.

There will be a rally at Mt. Vernon church next Sunday, November 10th, pastor, Sernum by Rev. D. Tucker.

Dr. W. A. Heard, of Maitland, Fla., was cured of Eczema after he had suffered for thirty years, and says: "HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR is the finest remedy for all skin troubles he has ever used or prescribed."

Doctors everywhere prescribe it; but they say Sulphur should be used in liquid form only, as it is in HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR. Buy it at all drug stores, or write HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR CO., Baltimore.

It cures all Skin and Scalp Diseases, if used in connection with the wonderful HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR OINTMENT.

THE SYMPTOMS OF IT ARE FELT EVERYWHERE.

The money question is now the talk of the community and we realized the fact in time to save our patrons all the money we possibly could in selling them up-to-date merchandise at slaughtering prices.

This means a big interest on your money at

Schwartzman Bros.,

WHITE STONE

and

KILMARNOCK.

WESTMORELAND CO.

MONTROSS.

J. T. Robertson is adding several rooms to his already comfortable home. Among others who have improved the appearance of the village recently are: Wm. Walker, L. R. Cook, T. R. Jackson, Dr. G. C. Mann and Eddie Jenkins.

Wm. White, near Montross, is building a commodious dwelling. Nothing adds more to a community than neat, well kept homes and we hope to see all the residents of Montross vieing with each other in this respect.

The Anti-Saloon League, under the management of some of our best citizens, has been doing excellent work recently. A number of cases have been brought before Justice Bonebrake, who imposed heavy fines on the offenders, and those guilty of lawlessness along this line have to be doubly cautious of late.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Muse, Isabelle, is very much indisposed.

Eddie Donahy continues on the sick list.

Corn shucking and wheat seeding is the order of the day among the farmers. A good many of our residents have visited Jamestown Exposition.